The College of Education Scholarship and Honors Committee is inviting nominations for the College of Education Distinguished New Faculty Award for the 2005 academic year. This award is open to all full-time, non-tenured faculty (tenure-track and faculty in residence) who are within the first three years of service to UNLV. This award includes a plaque and a small honorarium. Nominations may be made by a colleague, department chair, supervisor, student or a faculty member may self-nominate. A letter of nomination should be sent to any member of the COE Scholarship and Honors Committee no later than January 27, 2006. The nominee should be notified by the person submitting the name.

The award is based principally on the quantity and quality of the nominee's contribution to service, teaching, and scholarship during the last year. The cumulative accomplishments in all areas will be considered. It is the nominee's responsibility to submit all materials to Katrina Switalski in the Dean's office by February 24, 2006.

The following materials, not to include more than can be contained in a single 3 inch binder, must be submitted for consideration in making the selection of this award:

1. One copy of the candidate's curriculum vitae.
2. A one to two-page summary of the candidate's contribution in the areas of service, teaching, and scholarship during the last year.
3. Two letters of support from colleagues, department chairs, or students.
4. Evidence of the candidate's overall contribution in the areas of service, teaching, and scholarship through one set of verification materials such as:
   a. Evidence of leadership/membership in professional organizations.
   b. Grants and awards
   c. Teaching evaluations and course syllabi
   d. Reprints of publications
   e. Evidence of scholarly presentations.
