

Instructions for Writing Sample:

Please read the article on the website. You are to craft an essay of approximately two-double spaced pages, reacting to the article. You should give your thoughts and opinions, and demonstrate your reasoning behind those thoughts and opinions. You should not summarize the article in the two pages, though you may of course reference the article and summarize a point when necessary.

You may submit your article directly to:

connie.dye@unlv.edu

Connie is the administrative assistant in the Educational Leadership office. You should send her an email and attachment. Your email should state that you are submitting your essay response for your higher education doctoral application.
