Department of Educational and Clinical Studies

Fall 2012
National Certified Counselor (NCC)

Applications are available in CEB-118

Completed applications along with payment are due by:
Friday, July 6th by 5:00pm

The exam will be given on Saturday,
October 13th

The National Certified Counselor (NCC) is a voluntary credential that identifies to members of the public and prospective employers that you have met national certification standards based on research conducted in the field.